

NatuRregio

trainees for nature

Schedule of the project year 2009/2010

First phase in Germany (9 weeks):

31st March – 5th April 2009

1st Seminar in Schneverdingen: English for environmentalists – Technical language course and introduction to the programme, organized by the Alfred Toepfer Academy for Nature Conservation (NNA)

6th – 19th April 2009

2nd Seminar: Large scale Protected Areas in Germany – a field trip to selected PA's and important institutions, organized by the NAA.

20th April – 31st May 2009

Stay in placement centres

10th – 14th May 2009

3rd Seminar in Lueneburg – Project management, conflict management in nature protection, European environmental law and environmental interpretation organized by project partners of the university of Lueneburg

1st – 5th June 2009

4th Seminar in Romania organized by EUROPARC Federation focussing on local issues concerning Natura 2000 in Bulgaria and Romania. The seminar will be held together with the trainees of the previous year.

Intermediate phase in home institutions (10 weeks):

6th June – 16th August 2009

Focus on project planning – preparing the project surrounding for the implementation of the project in spring

Second phase in Germany (6 weeks):

17th August – 20th September 2009

Second stay in placement centres

21st – 23rd September 2009

Final workshop in Schneverdingen – presentation of the project proposals and awarding

Project implementation phase in home institutions (5 months):

24th September – 19th February 2010

Project implementation

9th – 14th November 2009

6th Seminar in Bulgaria

Closing workshop of the project together with the trainees of the last project years Euronature

19th February 2010

Deadline for the final project reports and official end of the programme